

Education

In addition to the Confucius Institutes, the Chinese college students become a local arm of the Chinese Communist Party, collect intelligence which they pass on to the Chinese government, and steal our technology. By financing entire university departments and courting university professors, China ensures an unending supply of China-friendly intellectuals and experts ready to interview, offer quotes, write articles, and lecture, all on behalf of the Chinese government.

- Academic Self-censorship
- Are Chinese language centres Spy Clubs?
- In the West, Chinese Student Groups Push the Party Line; act as a front group for Communist China
- KowtowingToChina
- WIOFPG_Chinese Students and Scholars Association Report